Commissioner Connelley attended the sessions of the National Safety Council in Detroit the week of August 28. He was accompanied by Fred J. Hartman, Secretary of the State Industrial Board. They brought to the attention of the council the importance of establishing in the Safety Council a group section for the officials in government work who are active in safety work. Plans for the 1923 session of the Association of Governmental Labor Officials were made at a committee meeting during the convention. Colonel Franklin D Olier, President of the Sesqui-Centennial Association, which will lay the plans for the World s Fair to be held in Philadelphia in 1926, has signified his intention in a letter to Commissioner Connelley, of bringing to the attention of the committee in charge of arrangements the proposal of the commissioner to have assembled at the exposition an exhibit on safety to be known as the Industrial Safety Exhibit. Colonel D Olier advises that the association recognizes the importance of sUch an exhibit as a part of the sesqui-centennial. The major groups into which an Industrial Safety Exhibit would logically fall are: 1. Guards for machinery. 2. Safety placards and posters. 3. Elevator protection devices. 4. Means of protection from high voltage electrical current. 5. Fire escapes and panic doors. 6. Scaffolds . 7. Masks and helmets. 8. Sanitation and hygiene. 9. First aid. It is likely that a model factory will be built to show...
