Her end is complete--Nor wonder the end. WEEP FOR THE FALLEN. Weep, for the fallen--weep, Shed thou the pitying tear, For they who sadly keep, The memory dark and drear. Remember they are gems, But tarnished in renown, A garden s broken stems, By tempests battered down. But God--shall set anew, His eye relight the blaze, And odors yet shall strew, The wastes of other days. Then weep, for the fallen, weep, Who feel the sorrowing tear, And in their souls must keep, That echo s haunting fear. THE PRODIGAL. Poor prodigal of fate art thou, From thee, all eyes are turned, And lips, that once would bless thy brow, Hath now their idol spurned. For thee, no strains of...
