After enduring the scrutiny of the boy's family, the good doctor must invade the boy's corporeal realm in order to cure him. The Blue Train of Moscow Landon, an American in Moscow, Russia, witnesses several bizarre events within hours of his arrival to the city. He realizes that he is hopelessly unprepared for his visit. At the end of his first full day in the city he must return to his apartment - an apartment that is far from the city center. Confused in the midnight darkness, he is unsure which train to take. He approaches a train conductor with hopes of getting directions. The conductor immediately becomes infuriated. Not unexpectedly, neither man understands the other's language. The enraged conductor then decides to lead Landon down the darkened platform. But to where? Sam Didn't Come Home Last Night Some people leave in broad daylight. Some people leave at night when everyone is...
