Brand New Book  Print on Demand .There are many avenues of gathering the necessary wisdom and knowledge, with regard to apprehension and attainment of the tangible aspects to most things that we experience, covet, need, and want. There are of course occupations, professions, relationships, and possessions that are of varying need and are based on a case by case basis per individual necessity. Many things don t necessarily require a full knowledge of all of the details and aspects of it s functionality, craftsmanship for utilization of it s purpose. When one begins the journey of religion or their quest in fulfillment for their journey of piety, freedom, fulfilment, and completeness in what some refer to as a higher power. There are key elements that one must consider. In most cases those elements are aspects that are taught, copied, or maybe just imagined. We as a human race don t usually experience our potential or think beyond our limitations within our own finite strength and will according to our human nature. There are a few who may even think that they could...
