

Nothing That Meets the Eye: The Uncollected Stories of Patricia Highsmith

By Patricia Highsmith

W. W. Norton & Company. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 464 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 5.4in. x 1.3in. Highsmith is no more a practitioner of the murder mystery genre. . . than are Dostoevsky, Faulkner and Camus. Joan Smith, Los Angeles Times The Patricia Highsmith renaissance continues with Nothing That Meets the Eye, a brilliant collection of twenty-eight psychologically penetrating stories, a great majority of which are published for the first time in this collection. This volume spans almost fifty years of Highsmith's career and establishes her as a permanent member of our American literary canon, as attested by recent publication of two of these stories in The New Yorker and Harpers. The stories assembled in Nothing That Meets the Eye, written between 1938 and 1982, are vintage Highsmith: a gigolo-like psychopath preys on unfulfilled career women; a lonely spinster's fragile hold on reality is tethered to the bottle; an estranged postal worker invents homicidal fantasies about his coworkers. While some stories anticipate the diabolical narratives of the Ripley novels, others possess a Capra-like sweetness that forces us to see the author in a new light. From this new collection, a remarkable portrait of the American psyche at mid-century emerges, unforgettably...
